

The image consists of two screenshots of a Mac desktop, showing a web browser (Chrome) displaying GitHub pages. The desktop background is black with several icons on the right side, including 'JDK 11.0.2', 'Screen Shot 2019-01-01...4.04 PM', 'Screen Shot 2019-01-01...5.45 PM', 'Screen Shot 2019-01-01...11.11 PM', and 'Google Chrome'. The dock at the bottom contains various application icons.

The top screenshot shows the GitHub profile page for 'chrisflanigan2' (https://github.com/chrisflanigan2). The profile includes a blue square avatar, the name 'chris flanigan', the username 'chrisflanigan2', and a note 'Joined 3 days ago'. It also shows '2 contributions in the last year' with a calendar grid and a 'Contribution activity' section for January 2019.

The bottom screenshot shows the repository page for 'chrisflanigan2 / cmpt220flanigan' (https://github.com/chrisflanigan2/cmpt220flanigan). The repository has 1 watch, 0 stars, and 0 forks. It includes a 'Quick setup' section with instructions for setting up in Desktop, using HTTPS or SSH, and creating a new repository on the command line. The command line instructions are:

echo "# cmpt220flanigan" >> README.md
git init
git add README.md
git commit -m "first commit"
git remote add origin https://github.com/chrisflanigan2/cmpt220flanigan.git
git push -u origin master

Below the command line instructions, there is a section for pushing an existing repository from the command line:

git remote add origin https://github.com/chrisflanigan2/cmpt220flanigan.git
